Semester Reports

We are nearing the end of Semester One and that means it is time for Schools to write their student reports. With the reports structure and setup complete, Teachers are well into updating student's scores and individual comments.

This semester will see the first use of some new semester report attendance related features. These include:

Calculate attendance statistics

Calculate student attendance statistics by:

Semester

Calculate Semester 1 attendance statistics to

Calculate Semester 2 attendance statistics to

Year

Calculate Yearly attendance statistics to

Days absent table

Include days absent table in attendance comments section

Show days absent table

Semester Days Absent	Good 0.5 - 4.5 days	Average 5 - 9.5 days	Poor 10 - 14.5 days	Very Poor 15+ days
Absent	Progress bar from Good to Poor (red dot)
Late	Progress bar from Good (yellow dot)

Once data has been entered for a student the results and comments can be reviewed before publishing to Parents. When finalised the reports can be viewed on uEducateUs or administration staff can print a hard copy to send home.

EduHub Connector

Version 2.1.0 of the uEducateUs eduHub connector has been released. It now includes the option to export your attendance daily to meet your department requirements. If you have not updated, please raise this with your IT Specialist. Detailed instructions on updating the uEducateUs connector can be found in the Help and Resources section of uEducateUs.

Data Analysis

Where to from here???

We would love to hear from schools on the future direction of Data Analysis within uEducateUs.

Q. Questions

What would your school like to see in Data Analysis?
 How would you like to view students' scores aggregated?
 What type of graphs would you prefer to see?
